THE LIVE WIRE IN PETERSBURG

Mayor McCarthy to Address the Baptist Sunday School Association.

MISSED STEP OF THE PILOT

Brakeman Goes Under Wheels of Shifter and Ground to Pieces.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 6.—Mayor

Carlton McCarthy will deliver the address to the Baptist Sunday School Association of Petersburg at the First Baptist Church Stinday afternoon, when the first anniversary of the founding of the Sunday school at the Old Street Baptist Chapel will be celebrated.

Richard Clements, twenty-four years old, a colored brakeman on the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, was run over and Killed by a shiffling engine near the Dunlop Street Station this morning. Clements attempted to step on the pilot of the moving engine, missed his footing and foll under the wheels, the body being badly mingled. Death was iffsantaneous. The man leaves a wife and several small children.

Joe Williams, of Chesterfield county, is reported to have been missing for three weeks, and is believed to have been drowned in the Appomatiox River, near Ferndale Park, but no trace of the body has been discovered.

City Engineer R. D. Budd, Dr. R. A. Martin, the city-health officer: Port Warden W. N. Mays, City Auditor G. B. Cill, City Resister of the Water Works James Brockwell were renominated for their respective positions without opposition at the Joint caucus of the Council and Board of Aldermen last night. The following board of overseers of the poor, the two from each ward being recommended by the ward representatives, was nominated: First Ward—E. A. Bain and J. M. Saunders: Second Ward—W. A. Worth and S. M. Green: Third Ward—R. O. Egerion, and J. E. Kirkham; Fourth Ward—H. F. Munt and J. R. W. Smith; Fifth Ward—W. E. Trent and H. C. Jenkins; Sixth Ward—D. W. Branch and T. F. Kidd. The Board elects the superintendent of the almshouse and the physician, among the candidates for which offices are the present superintendent of the almshouse and the physician, among the candidates for which offices are the present superintendent of the almshouse and the physician, among the candidates for which offices are the present superintendent. J. J. Williams, and Joseph Carter; Dr. J. E. Smith, the incumbent physician, and Dr. John Mann.

A. P. Hill Camp has elected

HALIFAX COURT

A Large Number of Cases Tried.

Many Licenses Issued.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HOUSTON. VA. April 6.—The Circuit Court of Hallfax county which convened Monday, March 26th, adjourned Wednesday and Judge Barksdale will hold a special term in Campbell Saturday to receive the report of the commissioner appointed at the last term to assess damages for certain lands taken by the Tidewater Rallfoad.

William Harrison, colored, for breaking into the slaughter-house of the A. W.
Vaughan Company and stealing a cow skin was given one year in the penitentlary, and Charlie Jordan, colored, for unlawful cutting, shared the same fate.
James Henry, for killing Chandler, who was by the justice and coroner's jury
some time since discharged on the ground of self-defense, was indicted by the grand fury, and gave ball for his appearance at the next term.

jury, and gave ball for his appearance at the next term.

Thomas Dunn, white, charged with criminal assault, and who has been in jail for hearly two months, was too sick to go to trial and his case was continued until the next term.

Three small cases for damages by fire against the Norfolk and Western Railroad were tried, resulting in verdict for the plaintiff, the judgment in each case was less than $50.

The only three cases of importance and general interest were: Alexander Alexander and general interest were: Alexander i Bruce vs. South Boston Electric Light and Power Company; J. W. Early vs. Paptist & Goode, and Mrs. Turner vs. Norfolk and Western Railroad, were con-tinued. A large number of chancery decrees were entered. Eight bar-room licenses—six at South Boston and two at Houston—and ten dis-

Boston and two at Houston—and ten distillery licenses were granted.

The application of C. O. Hamilton, who for about eighteen months, had been operating a distillery near Barkadale's Depot (Whitlock), for distilling was opposed by Rev. T. S. Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Willam Ewell, pastor of the colored Baptist Church in that neighborhood, and others, and the court after hearing the evidence of fifteen or twenty witnesses, denied the application.

application.

Messrs. Watkins and Watkins and Sengtor William P. Barksdale represented the applicant, and Hon. Wood Bouldin, the contestants. The case was submitted without argument. Among the witnesses for the contestants were Hon. H. O.

Kerns State sonator.

for the contestants were 10th 11. C. Kerns, State sonator.

Among the visiting lawyers attending court were R. W. Watkins, of Richmond; Avilliam Leigh, of Danville; F. S. Kirkpatrick, and J. W. Guthrie, of Lynchburg, and C. T. Reekoy, of Boydton.

"Ah-h-h! Here's something good!" That is the reeting which

10c. per package. Enough for 6 people. All grocers sell Jell-O.

Beautifully Illustrated recipe Oook, Iree. Address, The Genesee Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y. Approved by Pure Food Commissioners.

PATHETIC SCENE WHEN PRISONER SENTENCED

Emmet Graun Given One Year for Assault on Brother.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISONBURG, VA., April 6.—Ewing Craun, charged with felonious assault upon his brother, Emmett. Craun, near Fort Republic, was found guilty by a jury in the Circuit Court of Rockingham, this evening, and sentenced to one year in the penilentiary. When the foreman of the jury announced the verdict there was a pathetic scene in the court-room.

there was a patheur scene in the corroom.

The aged mother and father of the prisoner, his sister and brother, burst out crying and all attempted to throw their arms about the prisoner, who bogged the officers not to take him away from his friends, but the charge of the prisoner and adjourned court in the midst of the scene.

JACKSON MEMORIAL

Rockbridge Court to Give Alleged

Rockbridge Court to Give Alleged Wife Murderer Third Trial.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch) fff
LEXINGTON, VA., April 6.—Biss Mary
Nelson Pendleton, treasurer of Jackson
Memorial Hospital fund, of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy of Lexington, has received for the benefit of the fund a check for $23.39
from Mr. E. D. Hotchklas, of Richmond, Va. This is the money realized from the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Association of Richmond, which was organized for the purpose of purchasing the house at Guinea Station, in which General Jackson died. The organization was disbanded some time ago, and all its funds were ed some time ago, and all its funds were turned over to the Jackson Memorial Hosturned over to the Jackson Memorial Hospital of Lexington.

The city of Buena Vista reports that forty-live marriage licenses were issued during the past year, thirty-cight white and seven colored. The oldest man was forty-eight years, and the youngest twenty. The oldest lady was thirty-cight years and the youngest twenty. The oldest lady was thirty-cight years and the youngest fourteen. The marriage fees were distributed among thirteen ministers. Four of the marriages were solemnized in Lexington, one in Roanoke, and thirty in Buena Vista.

The April term of the Circuit Court of Rockbridge will open next Monday, the 9th. A case that has attracted considerable interest to be tried is that of J. Rudolph Lawhorn, colored, charged

J. Rudolph Lawhorn, colored, charged with the murder of his wife. This will with the murder of his wife. This wife, the third trial. In each of the other two the jury failed of agreement. The woman was shot last fall, the gun inflicting the wounds being in the Hands of her husband, who claims that it was accidentally discharged. Nearly fifty witnesses testified in the case on former trials.

trials.

The board of deacons of the Presbyterian congregation has selected a committee to arrange for the entertainment of the presbytery of Lexington, which will assemble in spring meeting in the Lexington church Tuesday evening, May ist. About ninety commissioners will be in attendance, and presbytery will be in session three days. The pastor of the Lexington Church. Rev. Thompson B. ington Church, Rev. Thompson B. Southall, will preach the presbyterial ser-

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Negro Languishes in Prison Six Months Before He Gets Trial.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUCKINGHAM COURTHOUSE, VA.,
April 5.—Circuit Court convenes in reguiar session on the 10th instant, and Judge Hundley will hold his last term then, as Buckingham is now in the Twenty-ninth Judicial Circuit, to be presided over by Judge Gordon.
Professor Thomas. of Lynchburg will

School Board is summoned to meet at that time.

The negro, Thomas Parsons, who blanguished in jail here for six or eight months, will probably be tried at this term of the court. He is charged with killing a negro named Thomas Banks, and admits the killing. Congressman Hal. D. Flood is his counsel, and the case was continued from the last term at his request.

McCants-Wells

McCants—Wells

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 6.—Miss Blanche Wells and Mr. Gorge McCants, both of this city, were married at quarter past seven o'clock last ovening at the West Street Methodist Church, and left at eight-thirty for a Southern bridal tour.
Miss Nettle Talbott was maid of honor, and Mr. Allen Perkins was best man, the ushers being Messrs. Emmett Vaughan.
E. W. Fisher, Junius Wood and Herbert Vaughan. Rev. F. G. Davis, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Shackleford Stands on His Record

(Special of The Times Dispatch.)

IAHORE, VA., April 6.—"It's all news," says State Senator Geo. S. Shackleford,
"Why, I see no cause for withdrawing from the contest, if contest there must be. My stewardship is before my conwituents."

NAVY IN OCTOBER

Big Battleship Going to Norfolk Navy Yard for Experimental Work.

BROKE A WHITE MAN'S SKULL

Negro Who Struck Merchant With Iron Bar in Danger of Lynching.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., April 6.—The great but tleship Virginia, built at the Newport News shipyard, will come to this navy yard on the 20th for experimental work, but it is not stated as to what experibut it is not stated as to what experiments will be made on the ship.

It is expected that the Virginia will go into commission next October, and she may remain here until that time. The housisians, also a preduct of the Newport News shippard, will come here on the ist of May, and will before that time go into commission, her officers and crew now heing stationed on the receiving ship Franklin.

Captain A. B. Willits, chief of the steam engineering department of the yard, was called to Washington last night, and it may be in connection with the experimental work planned to be done on the battleship Virginia that he has gone, but at Captain Willits's office to-day it was not known for what purpose he was called to Washington.

Hr W. Heale, a machinist employed at the Scaboard Air Line Railroad shops, is in the King's Daughters' Hospital, sufferling from a fractured skull, the result of a blow struck by a negro named Edward Brown, with a heavy fron bar, while the men were at work at the shops yesterday afternoon. The negro was inreatened with lynching by the fellowworkmen of Beale, but Watchman C. W. Jackson, of the Scaboard Air Line, succeeded in getting his prisoner to the county fail, where he awaits the feault of his victim's injuries before having an exceeding in getting his prisoner to the county fail, where he awaits the feault of his victim's injuries before having an exception will be necessary to save Mr. Beale.

company, thinks an operation necessary to save Mr. Beale. TO COLLECT HISTORY.

A. P. Hill Camp to Provide the Money for Its Archives.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 5.-A. P.
Hill Camp of Sons of Consederate Veterans to-night passed a resolution drawn by P. H. Drowry, authorizing the camp commander to appoint a history edition committee of five members to collect; edit and compile historical information from all available sources to be kept in the camp archives.

all available sources to be kept in the camp archives.

A sufficient sum of money to be allowed for the purpose.

Rev. R. W. Barnwell was elected commander; P. H. Drewry, first lleutenant commander; S. D. Rodgers, second lleutenant-commander; E. Cuthbert, third lleutenant-commander; R. A. Martin, adjutant; L. L. Kildd, treasurer.

The commander was empowered to appoint thirty delegates to the Confederate reunion in New Orleans.

District Conference.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch,)
DURHAM, . C., April 6.—Durahm Disthe past two days, at the Mangum Street Methodist Church, this being its fortieth Methodist Church, this being its fortistin session. Some time before the conference it was announced that Bishop Wilson, of Baltimore, would conduct the meeting, but on account of illness he could not be present. There are about one hundred delegates in the city to attend conference, which will adjourn the latter part of the week

Helvestine-Copenhaver,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MILLAWOOD, VA., April 6.-Mies Lilian Copenhaver and Mr. Warren Helvestine were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Copenhaver, in Millwood, Rev. Dr., Julian Broadus, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating, The happy pair left on the 8 P. M., train for Washington and other points.

Holland-Scott.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FRANKLIN SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY, April 6.—Miss Lelia Sout, daughte, of Mr. Jim Sott, of Southampton county, and Mr. Alexander Holland, of Plinner's Point, Va., were married at the home of the bride's father Thursday by Rev. Mr. Smith, of Richmond, who was formerly the paster of the bride. The happy pair will make their future home at Pinner's Point, Va.

Berryville Horse Srow.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BERRYVILLE, VA., April 6.—The Berryville Horse Show will take place August 21st, 22d and 23d. The time has been erroneously published heretofore as September.

BLIND MAN HELD UP AND ROBBED BY WOMEN

Mayor Wooding Principal Speaker at Religious Services.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., April 6.—Levy Sullivan, a bilind man of Harrisonburg, Va., was attacked yesterday and robbed of sti, all the money he possessed. Sullivan has been in the city for the past several days trying to make a living by the sale of pamphiets to charitable people. He was enticed into an alley yesterday and robbed by women, and escaped from their clutches only after a desperate struggle. In the Mayor's Court this morning, Martha Nunnally and Elvira Hubbard were convicted of being parties to the robbery of the sightless man, and each were fined $25 and given inject, and Sullivan recognized their voices, and Sullivan recognized their voices, Dr. W. O. Lee, a local physician, has been elected second lieutenant of the Danville Light Infantry. The military company will leave the city for an outing Easter Monday, Mayor Harry Wooding was the principal speaker at the services last night at the Christen Church here, welcoming Rev. Stephen A. Morton, the new pastor, Many of the local ministers made addresses, and Rev. J. A. A. Spencer, the retiring pastor, who now has charge of a Martinsville church, acted as master of ceremonies.

The newly elected officers for the Dan-$14, all the money he possessed. Sullivan has been in the city for the past several a Martinsville church, acted as master of ceremonies.

The newly elected officers for the Danville lodge of Eliks were installed last night. Mr. J. A. Brewer, the retiring exalted ruler, tendered a social session to the members. Mr. James Ingram is his successor.

The body of an infant, about three-fourths white, was plowed up by a negro yesterday near this city. A coroner sury investigated the death, but could discover no clue as to the identity of the infant, or how it met its death.

Working Girls Who Suffer

WRITE US FREELY

and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling all your troubles, and stating your age. We will send you FREE ADVICE, in plain sealed envelope, and a valuable book on "Home Treatment for Wolffeld, Address: Ladies' Advisory Department,
The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chaton "Home Treatment for Women."

TRY CARDUI

for misery in the back, irregular catamenial periods, falling feelings. headache, cold hands and feet, dizziness, cramps, nervousness, irritability, and all disorders of the womanly organs or functions. Working girls, in stores, offices and factories, school teachers, houseworkers, etc., who overtax their strength, by standing, lifting, sewing, sweeping, etc., suffer very commonly from diseases peculiar to their sex, and should treat themselves, before their condition becomes dangerous, with that well-known and successful medicine for sick women

Woman's Relief

"Live or die" writes Sarah G. Butts, the popular school teacher of White Plains, Va., "I feel sure death is no worse than the pains I suffered periodically." My trouble was a female disorder of the severest kind. I had taken so many medicines without relief that I was almost sunk in despair. Four bottles of Cardui gave me relief, and I am stronger now than in fifteen years. Cardui is certainly a panacea for female troubles. May God bless your every effort and broaden your territory until you have reached On South & Bount

At all Drug Stores in $1.00 Bottles

JAMES V. BURGESS DIES OF PARALYSIS

All His Business Affairs in Order.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTER, VA., April 6.—Mr. James V. Burgess, living near Ochre, Va., passed away this morning at 10 o'clock. About two weeks ago he incunted his horse just before breakfast and rode to a field to feed his sheep. While sitting on his horse, counting his sheep, he suddenly fell in a spasm, but after a little recoverfell in a spaam, but after a little recovered sufficiently to return to the house, where his family were waiting with breakfast for him.

After telling his wife what had happened he had another stroke, and had been sinking ever since. After recovering his consciousness from the first attacks, he made his wife get all of his business papers and gave instruction about them and all his affairs, and soon afterwards lapsed into unconsciousness, in which state he remained till he died.

Mr. Burgess was a member of Enon Baptist church and a prominent citizen of Chesterfield county. He married a daughter of Mr. Spencer D. Ivey, of Chesterfield, and she, with three children, siffvice hipr.

The inprial will take place from Enon church to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 33th o'clock, and he will be buried at the home of Mr. Waiter L. Burgess, his father's old homestead.

Stole Gas Money.

Stole Gas Money.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA. April 3.-George W. Walkins, the Berkley man arrested by Detective Heppel yesterday on the charge of systematically entering residence vastibules and robbing with a key quarter-in-the-slot gas meters, belonging to the City Gas Company, having been admitted to ball last evening, falled to answer when his case was called in the Police Court this morning, and his bond was declared forfeited by Justice Simmons. Watkins was balled by Justice J. J. Blick in the sum of $200, with the wife of the accused as surety. The bonding of Watkins under these conditions will be investigated by Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Tilton.

Walters-Stevens

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALEM, VA., April 6.—Miss Mary Stevens and Mr. Frank Walters were married to-day at the home of the bride's father, Mr. H. E. Stevens, a prominent business man of Salem. Mr. and Mrs, Waltors left immeditely for Washington, where Mr. Waltors is engaged in business.

What Does

OWNEYS

Stand For

with the public for a quar-ter of a century.

never yet questioned by pure food official.

resulting from use of costli-est and highest quality of

of any superfine Chocolate Bonbons in the world.

in guaranteed uniformity of highest excellence.

The Lowney Receipt Book Free.

The Walter M. Lowney Co..

BOSTON.

Cocon and Chocolate made anywhere at any price.

For Largest Sales

For Protection to

For Good Faith

For Finest Flavor

materials.

For the Best

Buyers

For Purity

EDUCATORS IN VALLEY While Yet Conscious He Puts The Seventh District Meeting at arts had Woodstock a Fine

GREAT MEETING OF

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HARRISONBURG, VA., April 6.—The Seventh District Educational Conference closed its sessions here to-night. The superintendents and delegates from th superintendents and delegates from the Valley countles, as well as members of the faculties of Washington and Lee University, Roanoke College, University of Night and the Parmyllie Normal School.

The meeting was the greatest educational conference over held in the Valley. Professor Ormond Stone, of the University of Virginia, presided over the conference. All phases of the educational movement in Virginia were discussed at length, and stirring addresses made by visiting educators. Among the speakers were Dr. Painter, of Roanoke College; Drs. Heek, Payne and Stone, of the University of Virginia; Dr. Messenger, of Farmyllie; Coffey, of William and Mary; Examiners Maphys, of Charlottesville, and Jenkins, of Newport News, and Professors Keister and Harris, of the Valley.

WITH FLASH AND ROAR.

Hail Pellets Like Marbles Fall With a Roll of Thunder.

With a Roll of Thunder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch)

WEST POINT, V. A. April 6.—At ten o'clock this morning geople were startled by a roar and a few large scattering drops of rain, when instantly a blinding hallstorm seemed to cover the earth. The shallstones, perfectly round, about the size of small white agate marbles, in a few minutes, covered the ground. The storm, accompanied with one roll of thunder and one flash of lightning, was soon over and the sun shining. The blooms on many fruit trees were beaten off by the hallstones.

Brings Good Prices.

Brings Good Prices.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 6.—
Tobacco growers of the adjoining county of Caroline, where the finest quality of tobacco grown in this State is raised, who have been holding back their last year's crop for the top market prices, are now rushing their tobacco into the Richmond market, and are being well repaid for waiting by the increased prices received. Tobacco is one of the most profitable crops raised in that county.

At a practice shoot of the Fredericks-burg Gun Club on their grounds yesterday, some fine scores were made, the highest heing made by Mr. Frank P. Stearns, who made forty-three out of a possible fifty.

The real estate on Prince Edward street, in this city, belonging to A. B. Fox his been purchased by G. M. Armstrong.

The work of painting and otherwise improving the court-house of Caroline county, at Bowling Green, is progressing nicely, and will be completed, it is thought, in time for next court day.

Plead Guilty and Appealed.

Plead Guilty and Appealed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORIFOLK, VA., April 5.—Young Lee, who keeps a Chinese store on 12ast Main Street, and who was arraigned in the Police Court this morning before Police Justice Simmons on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Boush, charging him with seiling gum optum to Charles Dos, a young white man, plead guilty in the Police Court and was fined $50 and costs.
He appealed the case, and was bailed in the sum of $100 for his appearance before the May grand jury.

EVERY INCH OF SKIN BURNED FROM HEA BODY

Inmate of House Jumps From Second Story

Window.

Window,

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., April 6.—Lottle
Lawrence, proprietress of a house at No.

165 Third Streat, was burnt from head to foot while trying to extinguish a blazing lamp hanging in the hall at 7 o'clock this evening. The woman is living, but every square inch of outer skin is burnt off, and Dr. W. P. Hoy sees little chance for recovery. Terrified by the fire, Minnia Belcher, sick in bed, immed from second-story window, suffering only a broken rib. Damage to the house was slight.

COAL S. H. HAWES & CO.

MP COAL. All Coal is sheltered, screened and delivered clean.
OUR MOTTO: "The BEST quality, PROMPT delivery, PLEASED customers."

PINE and OAK WOOD—long, sawed and split to order. Only the BEST.

Thone your order to No. 3817, and if that phone is busy, try No. 57, Bither one will be glad to enter your order, and will give the BEST service that you have ever had in the COAL trade.

WOMAN'S UNION OF NORFOLK PRESBYTERY

Missionary Addresses and the Election of Of-

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., April 6.—Presbyterian ladies to the number of one hundred and fifty gathered at the Ghent Presbyterian Church to-day for the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Norfolk Presbytery. The union is composed of missionary societies of churches in all parts of the presbytery, and there were delegates to the meeting from almost all the churches.

Miss Ella M. Goodridge, president, opened the meeting, and an address of welcome was made by Mrs. J. N. H. Summerell, wife of the pastor of the church. This was responded to by Mrs. Goodridge. The reports showed that much work has been done since the last meeting of the union.

Next year the union will meet in the Park Avenue Presbyterian Church. Many churches responded to the call for invitations for the meeting.

The election of officers resulted in the churches responded to the call for invitations for the meeting.

The election of officers resulted in the election of officers resulted in the election of Mrs. Goodridge as president, who had been serving since the retirement of Mrs. A. R. Shaw, of Portsmouth, Mrs. M. H. Bull was elected vice-president for the Norfolk District; Mrs. J. N.
Webb, for the Portsmouth District; Mrs.
W. A. Plecker, for the Hampton District;
Mrs. A. S. Vennable for the Eastern Shore District; Mrs. Robert Johnson, recording secretary, and Mrs. E. S. Phillower, of Norfolk, corresponding secretary.

hower, of Norfolk, corresponding secretary.

Miss Matthews, a missionary to China from the Southern Presbyterian Church, was present as a guest of the union, and made an address on missions in China.

Mrs. Bull, who has two children in the mission field of Corea, and who herself has spent a year there and has traveled in other mission fields, also indeed an instructive address.

Lunch was served at the church at 1 o'clock. The meeting was for the ladies only, but the Presbyterian ministers of the city were invited to the lunch.

After lunch, Dr. J. B. Thacker addressed the meeting, which was brought to a close by the singing of the long meter doxology.

THE REPUBLICANS.

Congressional Convention to Be Held in Marion June 20th.

Held in Marion June 20th,
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ABINGION, VA., April 6.—The Republican Committee, of the Ninth Congressional District, met here this week to decide on time and place for holding the congressional convention.

The convention will be held at Marion the 20th of June,
All is not lovely in Republican ranks in this district, there is a Siemp and anti-Siemp faction, and the fight is waxing warm, and by the time the convention meets it will be at a white heat, Stuart F. Lindsay is leading the opposition to the boss.

YOUNG GIRL MISSING,

Father Appeals to the Police Authorities to Find Her.

INCITIES TO FIND HET.

(R) Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(R) Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(R) Miss Mabel Nash, aged sixteen years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Nash, of this city, disappeared from her home here and her father, after exhausting every effort to locate her, has appealed to the authorities for assistance in indiang his daughter. She left her home Thursday at noon under the pretence of going on an errand and has not slice been seen by her family. Every effort is being made to find the girl and bring her back to her parents.

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,085 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased. These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee. Mr. Burrelle, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heirloom that will be handed down to future generations.

This work is one of the sevoral developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Burrelie has made a special study of the work he created several

Prescription

Filling.

We give this feature of our business our very best attention. We have the confidence of the medical profession.

Dispense only the finest chemicals and pharmaceutical preparations. Only registered men employed.

Bring us your prescrip-

T. A. Miller, (Incorporated.)
FOUR DRUG STORES.

Gain strength, new, rich blood, new life, vigorous health. You can do it. Thousands here in your own city are doing it. Fehr's Malt Tonic

It picks you right up. You feel better from

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS FEHR'S MALT TOMIC DEDT. Louisville, Ky

Build Up!

Gives prompt results. If you are run down or weakened by overwork or ill-health, this is the one dependable builder for you to try.